Admissions Policy

Introduction

The Proprietor of Windrush Valley School is the 'Admissions Authority' for the school. The Proprietor applies the regulations on admissions fairly and equally to all those who wish to attend the school. Admission is by interview with the Headteacher of Windrush Valley School. In each and every case this decision is final with no means of appeal. Pupils may enter at any age after their third birthday.

Conditions of entry

Windrush Valley School is an independent school that applies the following conditions of entry:

Selection – Entry between the ages of 3 and 7 is by interview and, where appropriate, receipt of a satisfactory report from the previous placement. Entry after 7 is by interview and subject to a satisfactory report from the previous school. At its discretion, the school may administer its own tests prior to admission, including the review of examples of pupils' previous work.

Pupils with Special Educational Needs -The school will admit pupils who have an Education, Health and Care (EHC) Plan; subject to, in the sole opinion of the Headteacher, the school's ability to meet the requirements of such a plan. Pupils with additional learning needs; for example, dyslexia, will be considered for admission, again subject to the school being able to provide an appropriate quality of educational support to the child. In each and every instance the Headteacher's decision shall be final.

Co-operation of parents –parents must provide a signed declaration that they will consistently and continually uphold the school's standards of behaviour and uniform. Parents must agree to pay all fees and expenses by the due dates.

Behaviour –Only those pupils with demonstrably good behaviour and a willingness to co-operate will be admitted. Those excluded, or at the point of exclusion, from another educational establishment will not be considered for admission.
